Press Release: March 5, 2006

Jewish Community Leaders Endorse Democratic District Leader Rory Lancman For State Assembly Seat In Queens Being Vacated By Brian McLaughlin

Today, March 5, 2006, the leadership of the Jewish community in the 25th Assembly District endorsed Democratic District Leader Rory Lancman for the Assembly seat being vacated by Brian McLaughlin on the steps of the Young Israel of Hillcrest, in the heart of the 25th District.

Virtually the entire Jewish leadership in the 25th Assembly District attended today's endorsement press conference, including Rabbi Moshe Faskowitz of the Torah Center of Hillcrest, Rabbi Dr. Richard Weiss of the Young Israel of Hillcrest, Rabbi Asher Schechter of Congregation Ohr Moshe, Rabbi Tzvi Nierman of Congregation Ohr Yitzchok, Rabbi Yonoson Hirtz of the Utopia Jewish Center, Rabbi Shlomo Nisanov of Congregation Ahavat Achim, Young Israel of Hillcrest President Kevin Leifer, Utopia Jewish Center Co-Presidents Stuart Rosenthal and Jay Goldberg, Tomchei Shabbos President Shimi Pelman and Alvin Warshaviak from the Torah Center of Hillcrest.

“I am humbled to have the support of so many distinguished leaders in the 25th District,” says Rory Lancman. “Coming on the heels of last week’s endorsement from the leadership of the South Asian community, today’s endorsement continues the momentum we are building for September. Every community in the 25th District is important to me, and I will work as hard as possible to continue winning the support of each and every community.”
