

NARAL Pro-Choice New York
Endorses Rory Lancman For The State
Assembly (pdf)

"I am honored to accept NARAL Pro-Choice New York's endorsement," states Rory Lancman. "NARAL's relentless defense of a woman's right to choose is essential now more than ever, as the Bush administration and its allies are waging a multi-front assault on choice at every level of government. I am determined to work with NARAL at the state level to not only beat back these assaults, but to expand access to safe, affordable and accessible reproductive health services in New York State."

Kelli Conlin, Executive Director of NARAL Pro-Choice New York, and Rory Lancman
